Juliane Miller is an experienced civil defense attorney with more than thirty years of practice focused on medical malpractice, long-term care, and professional liability defense. Juliane and her dedicated support team represent healthcare providers in complex litigation, arbitration, and matters before their respective boards. Juliane also litigates matters involving real estate professionals and represents them before their boards and in administrative proceedings.

Juliane and her team are skilled in conducting pre-suit investigations, supporting and guiding clients through the arduous litigation process, and providing strategic and effective advocacy at every stage of dispute resolution.

Juliane practices in the state and federal courts of Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia, and has tried cases to verdict in all three jurisdictions. She brings a strategic and practical approach to dispute resolution.

Juliane earned her B.S. from the State University of New York at Geneseo and her J.D. from Ohio Northern University's Claude W. Pettit College of Law, where she served on the Law Review editorial staff, participated in moot court, and competed on the August A. Rendigs, Jr. Products Liability Competition Team. She later obtained an LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center, with a course of study focused on health care law.

Juliane has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America® (2026) for Medical Malpractice Law – Defendants, Virginia Super Lawyers (2024–2025), and Virginia Business Legal Elite (2019–2025). Juliane holds a Martindale-Hubbell® AV Preeminent® Rating and is active in the Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys, Defense Research Institute, and the Alexandria Bar Association.

In her spare time, you may find Juliane reading a book or working in her garden. She rocks the red with her family and fellow Caps fans from October to June (hopefully) as a 20+ year season ticket holder with the Washington Capitals.
